1. Purpose

This document outlines the set of procedures which Tamworth Gas Networks P/L (ACN 690 358 279) ("AGIG") will apply to "small customer" complaints and disputes.

In this document, a reference to "AGIG" is a reference to Tamworth Gas Networks P/L or, where the complaint or dispute relates to a subsidiary of Tamworth Gas Networks P/L, to that subsidiary.

These are the gas distribution networks associated with the towns of:

- South Australia
 - Greater Adelaide Region
- Victoria
 - Melbourne CBD North, North East & South East
 - Regional Towns in Northern Victoria and Gippsland
- Queensland
 - North of Brisbane River
- Northern territory
 - Alice Springs
- New South Wales
 - Mildura, Albury, Wagga Wagga,

2. Scope

This document applies to small customers who make a complaint to AGIG about a relevant matter, or any aspect of a relevant matter, concerning the small customer and AGIG.

This document is not applicable to disputes referred for resolution outside of AGIG.

3. General

This complaint procedure has been prepared in accordance with Australian Standard 10002:2022 Guidelines for complaints management in organizations.

4. Definitions:

Complaint means an expression of dissatisfaction made to AGIG, related to its product, service, users, staff or the complaints-handling process itself, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected or legally required.

Note – AGIG may not be able to identify or respond to complaints made on third party social media accounts or channels.

Complainant means person, organization or their representative (including clients, consumers, services users, and customers) making a complaint.

Customer means a person to whom energy is sold for premises by a retailer or who proposes to purchase energy for premises from a retailer.

Dispute means an unresolved complaint escalated internally or externally or both.

Shared Customer means a person who is a customer of the retailer and whose premises are connected to AGIG distribution system.

Small Customer means a customer who is a residential customer or who is a business customer who consumes energy at business premises below 1 terajoule per annum.

5. Guiding Principles in Handling Complaints and Disputes

AGIG is committed to the following complaints management guiding principles:

5.1. People Focus

Everybody has a right to complain about our products and services, we will listen to the complaint, and do everything we can to resolve it.

5.2. Ensuring no detriment to complainant

All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that complainants are not adversely affected because of a complaint made.

5.3. Visibility

A complaint can be lodged by phone, email or post.

To lodge a complaint, you can:

- Write to us at: Customer Service Officer – Complaints, PO Box 885, Hamilton Central QLD 4007.
- Call our customer service team on Tel: 1300 001 001 during business hour (8am – 5pm)
- Email us at: NetworksCustRela@apa.com.au

5.4. Accessibility

Complainants can easily access the complaints management process and information on the process by contacting the Customer Service Team via the contact details provided under section 5.3:

5.5. Charges

Access to the complaints-handling process is free of charge to the complainant.

5.6. Responsiveness

Complaints will be addressed promptly in accordance with their urgency and, where applicable, the requirements of the relevant laws.

Complainants will be treated courteously and be kept informed of the progress of their complaint through the complaints-handling process.

5.7. Objectivity and Equity

Each complaint will be addressed in an equitable, objective, and unbiased manner through the complaints-handling process.

5.8. Confidentiality

Personally identifiable information concerning the complainant will be available where needed, but only for the purposes of addressing the complaint and will be actively protected from disclosure, unless the complainant expressly consents to the disclosure.

5.9. Customer-focused approach

A customer-focused approach is taken when handling complaints and feedback is welcome, including complaints. There is a commitment to resolving complaints.

5.10. Accountability

AGIG will ensure that accountability for the operation of our complaint management system is clear, including record keeping obligations.

5.11. Continual improvement

The continual improvement of the complaints management process and our ongoing commitment to excellence in customer service will remain a key focus and an ongoing business objective.

6. Complaint Handling and Dispute Resolution Process

6.1. Receipt of complaint

Upon receipt of the complaint, it will be recorded with supporting information and a unique identifier assigned.

6.2. Tracking of Complaint

The complaint will be tracked from receipt through the entire process until the complainant is satisfied, or the final decision is made. An up-to-date status will be made available to the complainant upon request and at regular intervals, at least at the time of preset deadlines.

6.3. Acknowledgement of complaint

A complaint will be acknowledged:

- immediately if the complaint is received via telephone; or
- within one (1) business day from date of receipt where the complaint is received by email or post.

6.4. Initial assessment of complaint

After receipt, each complaint will be initially assessed in terms of criteria such as;

- Severity.
- Health and safety implications.
- Complexity.
- Impact on the complainant, general public or the organization
- Potential to escalate.
- The need and possibility of immediate action.
- Outcomes sought by the complainant.

6.5. Investigation of complaints

Every reasonable effort will be made to investigate all the relevant circumstances and information surrounding a complaint. The level of investigation will be commensurate with the seriousness, frequency of occurrence and severity of the complaint.

In some cases, the complaint may be considered relating to another organization, such as retailer or another distributor or does not relate to our product or services, assistance may be provided to identify who to contact (if known).

6.6. Response to complaints

Following an appropriate investigation, a response will be provided to the complainant. If the complaint cannot be immediately resolved, then it will be dealt with in a manner intended to lead to its effective resolution as soon as possible.

6.7. Communicating the decision

The complainant will be informed of the outcome of the complaint process and of any reasons for the decision regarding the outcome, as soon as reasonably possible.

6.8. Escalation

If a complainant is not satisfied with the response or decision, they may:

- a. request the complaint be escalated to a senior customer resolution staff member to assess.
- b. Raise the complaint with the Energy and Water Ombudsman New South Wales (refer to section 8 for contact details).

6.9. Closing the complaint

If the complainant accepts the proposed decision or action, then the decision or action will be carried out and recorded.

If the complainant rejects the proposed decision or action, then the complaint will remain open. This will be recorded, and the customer will be informed of alternative forms of internal and external recourse available.

The complaint will continue to be monitored until all reasonable internal and external options of recourse are exhausted or the complainant is satisfied.

7. Enquiries Or Complaints Relating To The Retailer

If a shared customer makes an enquiry or complaint to AGIG about an issue relating to the sale of energy, AGIG must:

- a. if the enquiry or complaint is made by telephone – refer the shared customer to the retailer’s enquiry or complaint telephone number where practicable;
or
- b. otherwise, as soon as practicable, but no later than the next business day after receiving the enquiry or complaint, provide the retailer with the details of the enquiry or the complaint, including contact details of both the customer making the enquiry or complaint and the person who received the enquiry or complaint.

8. External Dispute Resolution / Energy Ombudsman

All our customers have the right to contact the Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW (EWON), including to lodge a complaint or for free independent information and advice. EWON investigates and resolves complaints from customers of electricity and gas providers, and some water providers.
